Lutheran Volunteer Corps

Milwaukee

BUILDING COMMUNITY, WORKING FOR JUSTICE, LIVING SIMPLY AND SUSTAINABLY

LVC in Milwaukee

In August 2011 six LVC Volunteers began a year together in August to live simply and sustainably in intentional community as the Dorothy Day House (the parsonage of Divine Word & Pentecost in Milwaukee) and work at the following social justice placements:

- Emma Kane—Sojourner Family Peace Center
- Nicole Lund —Bread of Healing Clinic (no longer in LVC)
- Maggie Berndt—Kids Matter, Inc.
- Anna Moore—9 to 5 National Association of Working Women
- Ryan Schone—Central City Churches
- Aaron Copley—Shalom High School

LVC Across the Nation:

LVC unites full-time stipended Volunteers with financial supporters, non-profit organizations and ministries to work for peace with justice across the nation.

- LVC Volunteers live together in intentional household communities of 4-7 people to encourage simple, sustainable living.
- LVC is recognized as a social ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and is a member of both Lutheran Services in America and Catholic Network for Volunteer Service.
- LVC is on a Journey to an Inclusive Community, forming and strengthening alliances among people of many cultures and communities, and intentionally dismantling racism in our organization, the church and society.
- As a Reconciling in Christ organization, LVC welcomes and encourages the full participation of people of all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions.

How You Can Help LVC:

Pray for LVC We welcome your prayers for our current and prospective volunteers; our staff, board members, and local support committees; our alums, donors, and friends, and for peace and justice in all the world.

Recommend LVC Who in your life is being called to LVC? LVC welcomes applications from self-motivated and mature individuals who are 21 or older. Many recent college graduates find rich opportunities in LVC for spiritual growth and vocational discernment. LVC Volunteers receive housing, food, transportation, and health insurance. Most student loans are deferred and many volunteers also qualify to receive an Americorps education award.

Support LVC Opportunities for supporting LVC include: encouraging your congregation to support LVC, volunteering with the Local Support Committee, making a donation, and more. Please visit our website www.lutheranvolunteercorps.org for more information!

For more information: www.lutheranvolunteercorps.org
Milwaukee/Chicago LVC Office—1218 W. Addison, Chicago, IL 60613 p.773.832.9426
National LVC Office—1226 Vermont Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20005 p.202.387.3222
The Rev. Sue Gaeta, Development Director sgaeta@lutheranvolunteercorps.org